WHO ARE WE?

Mark 12:31 CSB—“The second is, Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other command greater than these.”

1. Love people as _____ loves you.

John 15:13—“This is my command: Love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this: to lay down his life for his friends.

Matthew 5:43-44—“You have heard that it was said, Love your neighbor and hate your enemy. But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you.

2. Let Christ's love be demonstrated through your _____.

James 2:15-16—If a brother or sister is without clothes and lacks daily food and one of you says to them, “Go in peace, stay warm, and be well fed,” but you don’t give them what the body needs, what good is it?

1 John 3:17-18—If anyone has this world’s goods and sees a fellow believer in need but withholds compassion from him — how does God’s love reside in him? Little children, let us not love in word or speech, but in action and in truth.

3. Loving people is both a _____ and _____.

James 1:22—But be doers of the word and not hearers only.

James 1:27—Pure and undefiled religion before God the Father is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself unstained from the world.

THE BIG TAKEAWAY:

One loving heart sets another _____.

1 Corinthians 13:1-3—If I speak human or angelic tongues but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. If I have the gift of prophecy and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith so that I can move mountains but do not have love, I am nothing. And if I give away all my possessions, and if I give over my body in order to boast but do not have love, I gain nothing.
